

Im Windhalb, Dietikon

This detached, two-storey house was constructed using our timber frame system. The façade is made from rendered exterior heat insulation. It features an overhanging "green" roof that provides shade for the protruding balcony and terrace below. The large balcony windows are triple-glazed and set in plastic frames.

Services:

- Prefabricated timber construction
- Interior fitting

Client

Private

Architect

Weber Architekten
Rebhalde 33
8903 Birmensdorf
Switzerland

Area:

224 m²

Completion date:

30.04.2016

Duration:

6 months